PIANO FORTE TUNING AND REGULATING.

THE SUBSCRIBER, having engaged the services of Mr. E. F. HEARLEY, a competent and experienced tuner, is now prepared to attend to all orders with which he may be favored. The following testimonial to Mr. Hurlbut's capability is from the director of the celebrated Germania Musical Society:

CHICAGO, March 07, 1855.
It is with much pleasure that I recommended Mr. E. T. Hurlbut as a Piano Forte Tuner and regulator. To say that he is an excellent tuner, would not be doing him justice, for I can without hesitation say that he is capable of tuning a Piano as near to perfection as it is possible for a Piano to be tuned: but the greatest recommendation for him is the unusual length of time that he remains in tune. I have never, either in Europe or America, seen a man whom I would so cheerfully and with so much confidence employ to tune or regulate a Piano Forte as Mr. Hurlbut, and can cheerfully recommend him to all who want Pianos tuned.

News of the Morning.

We present this morning statements showing the frauds perpetuated in the canvass of the votes from Polk County. From Washington, we have news of considerable importance. Several Democratic members have bolted Richardson, owing to his having expressed an opinion in favor of the constitutionality of the Wilmot proviso, and others refused to follow the line marked out by their party leaders. A Republican National Convention has been called to meet at Pittsburgh on the 22d of February, to take the initiative steps for nominating a President and Vice President. The Spanish Government has despatched several ships of war to look after Com. Spaulding and Col. Walker. The severe storm of Saturday and Sunday caused great destruction among the shipping in New York Bay. One of those disgraces to humanity, a prize fight, came off on the Canada line between a Chicago and Liverpool, (Eng.) pugilist. Some heavy swindling operations have come to light in New York City. The arrival of the Ericsson puts us in possession of later news from Europe.

The Polk County Frauds.

We called the attention of our readers yesterday to the fraudulent proceedings whereby Waupaca county was counted at 421 majority for Barstow, when it gave in fact a majority of between one and two hundred for Bashford We now desire them to look at the subjoined evidence of similar villainies in Polk county, which was at first reported at 40 democratic majority, returned by the county Canvassers at 35 majority for Barstow, and canvassed by the State Officers at one hundred and twenty-nine for Barstow! This canvass was predicated upon a "supplemental return," purporting to come from "Spring Creek," showing 167 votes for Barstow, and 18 for Bashford That this was a wholesale, deliberate, unblushing fraud, the following affidavits conclusively prove:

Certificate of the Clerk of Board of Supervisors of Polk County.

"I hereby certify that there are but two organized towns in the county of Polk, namely the town of Le Roy and the town of The Falls of St Croix; and that at the election in November last, in said county of Polk, THERE WAS NO PRECINCT ESTABLISHED AT SPRING CREEK, and that there were no votes canvassed from Spring Creek precinct in said county from, nor any .

Dated at Osceola, Polk county, Wis., Dec. 29, 1855. EDWARD J. TYLER, Clk. Bd. Supe. Polk county, Wis.

Certificate of the Town Clerk of the Falls of St Croix.

"I hereby certify that there was no precinct set off, or established [illegible] of Falls of St. Croix, Polk county, Wis., at the election in November last, known or called the precinct of Spring Creek, and that ALL the votes taken at said election in the town of Falls of St Croix, were received at the village of the Falls of St. Croix.

Dated at Falls of St. Croix Polk Co., Wis., Dec. 29, 1855. WM. AMERY, Town Clk. of Falls of St. Croix, Polk Co.

Certificate of Town Clerk of Le Roy.

"I hereby certify that there was no precinct set off or established in the town of Le Roy, Polk Co., Wis., at the election in November last, known or called as the precinct of Spring Creek, and that all the votes taken at said election in the town of Le Roy were received at the village of Osceola in said town of Le Roy

Dated at Osceola, Polk Co., Wis., Dec. 29, 1855. EDWARD J. TYLER,
Town Clk. Le Roy, Polk Co., Wis

Mr. Tyler is both town clerk of Le Roy, and clerk of the county.

Our European Correspondence.

We publish this morning, another of the graphic and interesting letters of our European correspondent, Mr. VOLNEY FRENCH of Kenosha. It is accompanied with a private note, from which we make the following extract:

"CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 10, 1855.

Messrs. Editors:—I arrived here ten days since, after a long passage via the Danube and the Black Sea. The Sentinel came along all right. After this, direct to Cairo, to care of some bankers as in Alexandria.

I am waiting with no little impatience, to hear the result of the election in our state. As I write, the sun is shining over the Bosphorus into my windows, and the air is as warm and bland as in August with you. The difference occurs to me, for one year ago this day, I was weather bound in Chicago, in a cold snow storm

Truly Yours, V. F"

We anticipate a series of very interesting letters about Egypt, the Crimea and Constantinople, from the graphic pen of our correspondent. The Sentinel follows him faithfully in all his wanderings, and those who have been far away in distant lands, know that, next to the face of an old and dear friend, there is nothing so welcome as the newspaper which brings them tidings from home.

THE CHARGE AGAINST MR. NOONAN.—The Wisconsin, in its notice of the very small proceedings on the part of the United States District Attorney, whereby an indictment was found against Mr. NOONAN, for constructive violation of the Sub-Treasury Act, in paying a contractor, at his own request and as a matter of accommodation, about $60 in bank bills, instead of coin, lugs in the following item:

Copy of receipt taken from John Hahn, by the Milwaukee Post Office, which it is now stated to us to have been for twice the amount Hahn actually received, which was before the Grand Jury, in the indictment:

"MILWAUKEE POST OFFICE,
To John Hahn, Dr.
For services rendered as a clerk from January 1st, 1855, $60,00
Payment Received, JOHN HAHN.
(Signed)
Milwaukee, Wis., March 31, 1855."

This receipt was sent to Washington as voucher by the Milwaukee Postmaster, in April, 1855

So far true—but hear the whole story. This receipt was taken by the Chief Clerk of the P. O., and without Mr. NOONAN'S knowledge. Mr. N., however, heard of, in July last, and immediately wrote to Washington, correcting the error and charging $80, instead of $60, to account of Hahn's services. But without the correction, as with it, the expenses of the office for the quarter exceeded the commissions, in which case the Postmaster has to make up the deficit. So that the mistake only counted against Mr. NOONAN and not against the government, in any way, and was rectified by Mr. N. himself within three months after the error was made. This is a fresh illustration of the petty and spiteful warfare waged against Mr. NOONAN, at the instigation of "Barstow and the Balance."

OUR FOREIGN RELATIONS.—Greeley, writing to the Tribune in reference to our foreign relations, says that within a few years several foreign ministers have rendered their tribute to the worth and attractions of American women by the highest evidence of their appreciation of both. Mr. Bodisco married Miss Williams, of Georgetown; Mr. Sartiges, the French Minister, married Miss Thorndike, of Boston; Mr Benneles, formerly Secretary of the Spanish Legation, married the sister of Madame Sartiges; Mr. Boileau, present Secretary of the French Legation, married the daughter of Col. Benton; Mr. Marcoleta, minister from Nicaragua, married Miss Kicklighter, of Washington city; Mr. Carvalno, the late Chilian Minister, gave two manifestations of this "distinguished consideration" to the United States, and now Mr. Stoekl the Russian Minister, is added to the catalogue.

FROM MADISON.

Editorial Correspondence of the Sentinel.

MADISON Jan. 15, 1856

Arriving here this noon, I find that nothing of much importance has been done yesterday or today in either House. In the Assembly, a resolution has been offered by Mr. Knowlton, requesting both of the Governors to sign the bills passed, so as to secure their legality. It will be discussed to-morrow probably.

The Senate has a session this afternoon, and the Committees will probably be elected by the majority. The minority, it will be found, are trent with commendable fairness.

After having the papers in relation to the Gubernatorial contest in his hands for a couple of days, the Attorney General has very coolly "filed an information"—I believe that is the phrase—of altogether a different sort from that asked by Mr. Bashford's counsel. They asked for an examination into certain specified, alleged frauds, whereas, he has asked, in their behalf, for a general overhauling of the vote throughout the state, or what is equivalent thereto, being nothing less than a carrying out of the Barstow programme for delay as long as possible If this does not cap the climax for impudence, then I am mistaken. How long will the people suffer these things? What course Mr. Bashford and his counsel will take I do not know, but they will not, of course, submit to have their case made up for them, by the partizan Attorney General.

A Sad Story.

In the Chicago Tribune of Monday last we find the following announcement:

MARRIED.

In De Kalb, St. Lawrence Co, N. Y., Jan. 7th, by Rev. G. Cross, Mr. RUFUS BLANCHARD, of Chicago, to Miss PAMELLA FARR, of De Kalb, N. Y.

The same paper contains the details of the fatal R. R. accident on the Hudson River Railroad, on Wednesday last, and the following among other incidents

SAD TERMINATION OF A BRIDAL TOUR.

In the hall of the Exchange House we met a gentleman laboring under great mental affliction. Engaging in conversation with him, we learned that his name was Rufus Blanchard, publisher and bookseller, of Chicago, Illinois, and brother of Mr. Blanchard, the publisher, of Nassau St., New York. Mr. Blanchard was married on the 7th of this month to Miss Farr, a most beautiful and accomplished lady, at her home in De Kalb, St Lawrence county, in this State The happy couple were on their wedding tour when the accident overtook them. It appears that, owing to the crowded state of the sleighs at Albany, Mr. Blanchard and his bride were separated from Miss Powell, a lady friend, who was traveling with them, and in the society of his wife Mr. Blanchard forgot all about her until they arrived at Poughkeepsie, when Mrs. Blanchard suggested that he should go through the cars and see if he could find her After the train had left the Poughkeepsie depot, he set out on his errand, and it was during this brief absence that the calamity occurred. Mr Blanchard sprang out of the door of the car, and escaped unhurt by leaping into the snow.

As soon as the crash was over, he rushed wildly through the wrecked cars in search of his wife, shrieking for help, and calling on her name. But his words were only echoed by others equally distressed whose relatives and friends were involved in the common ruin, or replied to by the cries and groans of the sufferers. For fifteen minutes, which seemed as many hours, he sought her everywhere without success. At length some one asked if his name was Rufus Blanchard, and then his friend took him to the place where his wife lay. And what a sad spectacle met his view! She who a few moments before was radiant with beauty, and overflowing with her young joy, now lay before him crushed and maimed and blackened so that he had not recognized her as his wife, although he had passed her a score of times during his search, supposing from her face that she was a poor colored woman. Half crazed with sorrow he would have thrown himself upon her seemingly lifeless body in his great grief, and have bewailed her as dead, had not the bystanders held him back. Then his noble wife manifested her gladness at his safety, and bade him hope that all things would work together for good, that she would yet live to make glad his heart, and to share his love. This was only one of many such scenes at the meeting of friends and relatives after the accident.

The unfortunate lady was taken to the Exchange House, and placed under medical skill.—Her left leg is fractured in two places, near the ankle. One of her hands is badly cut, and her face and bosom are scorched or scalded nearly black, and her eyes are somewhat injured. The above facts we learned from various parties who witnessed them. Mr. Blanchard took us into the room where his wife lay, and after showing us her sad condition, he took the miniature of a beautiful woman from his bosom, and said—"There is what she was this time yesterday." Mrs. Blanchard has manifested, throughout her sufferings, the most heroic fortitude, cheering her husband, and exhibiting a spirit as once hopeful and resigned Her physicians are doing all that human skill can do, and strong hopes are entertained that she will recover.

☞ We learn from Madison that the Supreme Judges are unanimous in the opinion that there was no fraud in the election for Governor, that Gov Barstow was fairly elected, and that he must hold the office the next two years whether he will or not.—Columbus Reporter, (Barstow.)

As the Barstow paints have ascertained how the Supreme Court stands on this question, even before the case has been submitted to that tribunal, we anticipate that they will make no sort of objection whatever, to a speedy decision. So far as the friends of Mr. BASHFORD are concerned, there is nothing they so much desire as an early hearing of the case, and a prompt and searching investigation of the frauds alleged to have been committed in the Canvass. Surely no honest man, no sincere democrat, no well-wisher to the reputation of our State can wish to see the popular will perverted, the ballot-box violated, the law outraged, to subserve the interests of any man, or any party. Let all good citizens therefore, without regard to their personal or political preferences, unite in the effort to ferret out these frauds, to punish the perpetrators, and to give effect to the will of the People, as expressed through the ballot-box.

THE GOOD SAMARITAN.—The physician who dressed the wounds and relieved the sufferings of the poor German laborer who was so badly hurt by the caving in of a bank in the Fourth Ward, on Saturday last, was Dr HAMBITZER, Chestnut street, Second Ward. The man who passed by on the other side, refusing to help a fellow being in distress, because he was to poor to pay in advance, was—well, we will withhold his name, in the hope that he will never be guilty of such inhumanity again.

WESTERN R. R. STOCKS.—The N. Y. Tribune of Saturday last, in its money article, says:

In Western shares the market was rather firm at the close. Galena sold at 125, which is ½ per cent better; Michigan Southern, 85, having been 87½, Cleveland & Toledo, 73; Chicago & Rock Island, 86, Michigan Central, 90½; and Mississippi and Mississippi did not fall off, the amount of the dividend—78½—being offered, dividend off, equal to 89. The business in Railroad Bonds was to a fair extent only, and the market is steady.

Now that wild cat currency is so nearly driven out, we may predict that, within a year, Wisconsin will have enough of banking capital to furnish her business men with a secured currency, second only to that of Illinois.—Chicago Tribune.

Second to none, Sir! We should be glad to have our Chicago contemporary point out any paper currency which is better secured than that of Wisconsin.

☞ The Louisville Journal of the 4th inst says: "A Mrs. Rhodes, of this city, on Thursday last, had four babies at a birth—two boys and two girls. They are all very well indeed, and the mother is much better than could be expected. We have spoken of her as 'a Mrs Rhodes,' but we beg pardon—she is the Mrs. Rhodes"

REPORTED FAILURES IN NEW YORK.—The Tribune of Saturday, says

There was a current rumor to-day on 'Change of a failure of a Produce house—liabilities $700,000. The name was not made public, and the report appeared to have originated in letters from Chicago. A failure of a Grocery house was announced yesterday from sugar speculations.

RAMBLES IN EUROPE—NO. 56.

Valley of the Danube from Papau—Count Pilty—A Pilgrimage Church—Deggendorf Church and the Devil—Linz, and its Ladies—The Danubian Robber Knights—The Prisoner of Durrenstein Castle, and his Escape.

VIENNA, Oct 15, 1855.

The town of Papau is picturesquely situated on the right bank of the Danube, and has many interesting old buildings. The whole valley, in fact, from here to Vienna, has a great number of fine cities and villages, and the scenery is extremely interesting Scarcely a turn is taken in the river during this distance but what there are seen old ruined castles, occupying prominent heights of land and the summits of high hills and the tops of precipitous heights and mountains.—Many of these have been abandoned for centuries, and now neglected and being forgotten, only exhibit tall towers perforated with circular and oblong windows and high walls and ditches, others are fitted up in the style of former times and occupied by the descendants of the former owners. Each of these, particularly the former, have legends as well as historical facts connected with their history.

As there has never been any good degree of feeling between the Protestants and Catholics in this section, many of them are of a religious character. At Ingoldstadt, the famous leader of the latter party in the thirty years war, Count Tilly, died and was buried. He was shot a few days before in the battle fought under the walls of Rain, a little village not far off, while at the head of his troops one one side, opposed by Gustavus Adolphus, in person, on the other. It is reported that one of the brethren of his order wrote of the fact as follows "Here he was destined to yield up his soul, purified by heretics' blood, although he had fortified himself against the devilish bullets of the Swedes by a consecrated wafer."

Near a village called Marbach, on the top of a hill, is a church called the Pilgrim Church of Maria Tafel, (Mary of the little table) receiving this name from a miracle-working image nailed up to an old oak, under which the peasantry formerly met once each year around an old stone table covered by the branches, and after offering up their prayers for a bounteous harvest, ended the occasion by holding a feast. In the course of time the old oak died. A peasant one day took it into his head to cut it down, but the first blow he struck, the edge of the axe turned towards his foot and wounded him severely. Looking upwards he saw the image, and becoming penitent for what he had done, his wound was miraculously cured. A church was soon afterwards built on the same spot, and thither thousands repair to offer up their prayers for her intercession in granting some bequest. It is computed that 50,000 go there annually in the single month of September.

At a place called Ober-Altaich stands a Benedictine Convent, nearly on a level with the water, having two towers. The church attached is decorated with paintings in fresco, representing the heretics in a series of figures in the forms of dogs and wolfs with human faces. In the distance is seen Luther in the shape of an unclean spirit running away, astride of a hog, with a beer glass in one hand, a sausage in the other, and a Bible under his arm. A little further off monks are drawn sprinkling holy water on the neighboring village of Straubing, whose inhabitants favored the reformation.

Opposite Metten is a high conical hill, the only eminence on that side of the Danube. Tradition relates that it came to be there under the following circumstances Deggendorf, a village on the opposite side, was very pious, which gave great offence to the devil, and he determined to punish them by drowning them in the Danube. So he went to Italy and brought up a large mountain to drop into the river to dam it up, but as he was flying through the air, not but a short distance off, he heard the Ave Marie chanted by a few pious monks, which so alarmed him that he suddenly let fall, and it now forms the hill of Nutzenburg. Upon the summit there was afterwards erected a castle, which was destroyed by Gustavus Adolphus in the thirty years war.

In the village of Deggendorf, there was a church erected which is said to possess miraculous wafers. In 1337, according to a tradition now all over Europe, the Jews stole these wafers and treated them with sacrilegious indignities. At each insult, it is said, there was a miraculous appearance of a child, that always averted the intended indignity. When the wafers were pricked with thorns, blood would spout forth, and on baking and trying to eat them, they were transformed into the figure of a child, and stuck in the accursed infidels' throats On their throwing them into a well, a radiant glory arose above them, on the water, and betrayed the guilt of the revilers. On this being known, every Jew in the town was massacred, and all their goods confiscated. A series of twenty-four paintings on the walls of the old church, are now seen, representing this tradition. It afterwards became a spot for the resort of pilgrims, to which thousands of devotees annually repaired. As long ago as 1439, the Pope granted absolution to all who should visit the church.

I travelled with an English gentleman several days, who stopped nearly a week at the same village, this summer. He told me he never saw a people who were so devoted to the subject of religious matters as they were, and that they were sincere and pious; that they spent a greater part of their time in church every day, and were very solicitous, on his own soul's account, that he should go to this church. He further told me, that they religiously believed every word of the story about the mountain and the wafers.

Linz is one of the finest towns on the Danube, and has a beautiful site. From it may be seen the valley of the river for many miles, stretching away over the plains at the east, and at the south, the snow clad mountains of Salsburg and the Styrian Alps. This is the first city of Austria the traveller meets in coming from the west. Fearing the French, who had twice made him a visit under Napoleon, at his imperial capitol, in Vienna, the late King commenced the fortifications of this city on a novel plan, which have since been completed. Instead of a wall, the place is surrounded with a chain of isolated forts, consisting of thirty-two in number, and forming a circle of nine miles in length—nine being on the north bank and twenty-three on the south bank. These forts are amply supplied with store magazines and all the necessary munitions of war. Each is connected with the other by a covered gallery of great strength and solidity.

The ladies of Linz, as well as those of Passau, are pronounced by strangers to be very beautiful. Thinking that it would be well enough to be my own judge, in company with a gentleman whose acquaintance I had formed on the boat, we repaired to the Volks Garten, a family resort on Sabbath afternoons, for the elite of the city, to take coffee, beer, smoke, &c, and hear the military band of music, which, as I have before written, is supplied at the expense of the government, for the amusement of the people. I must confess that I was agreeably disappointed in the personal appearance and bearing of both sexes. The gentlemen, particularly the soldiers, were tall and graceful, and the ladies mostly blondes, with large, lustrous black eyes. All know that neither of these types are frequent among Germans, yet they are found here. Probably, the inhabitants are descendants of some of the ancient Roman colonies, who remained here after the country was retaken from them.

After a few hours ride from Linz we entered among some mountains that resembled very much some portion of the scenery between Albany and New York among the Highlands, yet lacking their wildness and sublimity. There are five or six old castles here in sight at one time and within a short distance of each other They are mostly the former strong holds of robber knights who used in former days to have the whole surrounding country under their control. The rapids and whirlpools in the vicinity formerly were very dangerous and while the mariners of the small vessels were engaged in trying to surmount them, these armed marauders would issue forth and seize their prey. These hills tho' very high and having steep sides, yet they are covered with timber from their summits to the very water's edge, and at this season of the year are glowing with many colored tints of the different species of foliage of the expiring autumn.

(Concluded to-morrow.)

Messrs Editors —

An article in your paper yesterday stated that I stole some money from the Wisconsin House. I beg to state that I had not been in that house, for two nights previous to the robbery. By giving this a place in your columns, you will oblige.

The Terrible Accident on the Hudson River Railroad.

THREE PERSONS KILLED, AND TWENTY-TWO OTHER'S BRUISED, SCALDED AND MAIMED.

[From the N Y Herald, 16th]

We to-day give the harrowing particulars of a catastrophe the like of which has not been known since the wholesale slaughter at Burlington on the Camden and Amboy Railroad It appears that owing to some defect in the track, the Albany morning express down train for this city yesterday afternoon, came to a halt at the crossing at Montgomery Cove, a few miles below Poughkeepsie, and while standing motionless upon the track, the Poughkeepsie up train came along at full speed, and dashed headlong into the Albany train, smashing to fragments one car, and nearly demolishing another. A brief warning of the impending danger has been given the occupants of the cars, and several of them succeeded in making their escape in safety; but the majority of them remained to receive the full force of the terrific shock, and to be hurled amid the rubbish of cars and the fire and scalding water of the locomotive. Three persons were killed outright and twenty-two were frightfully scalded or otherwise wounded, many of whom cannot recover.

As far as ascertained, the following is a list of the killed and wounded.

KILLED.

A young man and woman, names unknown—both terribly mutilated.

Mrs Green, of Utica, was taken from the ruins alive, but died soon after.

INJURED.

Two ladies unknown, lying at the Exchange House, very badly scalded, so that their recovery is considered doubtful.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, of Albany, slightly wounded.

Three children of the above, badly scalded and bruised

J. D Gott, of New York, slightly bruised.

Abel Priest, of New York, cut on the head.

Catherine Howell, (Colored,) of New York, collar bone broken, head bruised, &c.

Mr. Bogert of New York, head cut, and side and limbs injured, but not dangerously.

Mrs Campbell, of Utica, slightly injured

H. Emmans, of Vernon, Oneida County, slightly injured

Mrs. Oscar Hull, of New Haven, slightly injured.

Capt Schuhalar, of Albany, badly bruised and mutilated.

Miss. Gardner, a sister of H. Mix of this city, and Mr. Pond slightly injured.

George Kless, of Madison County, Ohio, skull fractured, in a precarious state.

George Harrington, of Washington, D. C, face scalded, and otherwise injured.

Daniel Lord, lawyer, of New York, slightly injured.

James Ludlow, of New York, slightly injured.

A little girl, name unknown, lying at Ruzzer's Hotel, will probably die before morning.

WONDERFUL ESCAPE OF A MOTHER AND CHILD.

Mrs. Webster, of Peekskill, with her infant in her arms, was sitting in the last car of the express train, when she saw the impending danger, and rushing to the door, sprang out into the snow with her babe, and both escaped without injury.

HOW MESSRS. CUTTING, VAN BUREN AND LORD ESCAPED.

The Hon. F. B. Cutting, Smith, Van Buren and Daniel Lord were in the rear of the express train, when they saw the Poughkeepsie train app oaching, and immediately gave the alarm to the other passengers, and then rushed for the door and jumped off. Mr Lord was the only one of the three who sustained any injury.

"THE CHILD OF THE WRECK."

Margret Trace, a resident of Troy, was one of the passengers on the express train, but escaped with a few bruises. She was taken to William Sprague's house in Poughkeepsie, where, in the course of the night she gave birth to a fine boy It appeared that her husband deserted her somewhere since, and hearing that he was residing in Boston, she had set out with the intention of finding him.

KILLED.

Mrs. Eliza M. Keese, wife of Henry Harbart of Albany, and daughter of the late John D. Keese, of this city, died in the car on its way from the accident to Poughkeepsie. She was scalded about the head her limbs were fractured in many places, and her body crushed in a shocking manner. Her husband arrived at Poughkeepsie at 10½ o'clock yesterday morning in a state of extreme mental pro-tration In the afternoon, her remains were taken to New York by her friends.

Mrs. Greene of Utica, although taken out of the ruins alive, survived her injuries but a short time, dying before she reached Poughkeepsie. Yeate-day, her brother-in-law, Mr. B. F. Munday, of New York, and her husband, took her remains to Utica. Mr. Hurlburt, whose wife was also killed, relates a remarkable circumstance in regard to those unfortunate ladies. In Albany he placed his wife on the seat with Mrs. Greene in the last car. Subsequently they both went into the next car forward, and took different seats—both were killed. Mrs. Greene was on her way to visit her sister, Mrs. Munday, in New York, who had recently lost two children, for the purpose of consoling her in her bereavement Mr Munday went to the cars to meet her on Wednesday, and returned home to his wife with the melancholy tidings of her sister's death.

The third person killed by this accident was a man whose name is at present unknown His death, it must have been quicker than thought, for all that remained of him was a mass of shapeless matter. His legs had been cut off at the knees, and were only united to the body by a few ligaments: his trunk was torn open, and all that remained of his head was a small piece of the base of his skull with a few brown hairs sticking to it, and a portion of his upper jaw. His clothes were cut to pieces, and the only means of identifying him will be by the baggage-checks found in one of his pockets. This body was lying yesterday on the floor in the freight-house at Poughkeepsie, covered with a ragged buffalo robe Papers found near where he lay seem to show that his name is James Gordon, of Canada West, and it has been suggested that he was the husband of the insensible Canadian lady mentioned in the list of wounded

Marine Disasters and Loss of Life and Property on the Lakes for 1855.

Capt. D. P. Dobbins, General Marine Inspector for the Board of Lake Underwriters, has submitted his annual report of disasters on the lakes from which we learn that the past season has been unusually destructive to western commerce, and that instead of diminishing in frequency and extent, the losses of life and property continue to increase with a steadiness and rapidity truly appalling, notwithstanding every effort to the contrary. From the report of Capt. Dobbins we have the following figures:

Total loss of property in 1855	$2,621,600
" " " 1854	2,187,825
Increase in 1855	$433,701
Total loss of life in 1854	119
" " " 1855	120
Increase in 1855	1

Of the 603 disasters detailed above, two occurred in the month of January, two in February, two in March, eight in April, forty-five in May, thirty-seven in June, thirty-five in July, twenty-five in August, seventy-six in September, one hundred and forty-eight in October, one hundred and forty-three in November, twenty-six in December, and thirty-five at dates not given—total 603. Three steamers, seven propellers, six barques, eight brigs, thirty-three schooners and one tug, have gone out of existence during the year, making a total of 58.

Even with this enormous aggregate, Capt. Dobbins states that the loss of property is underrated, and owing to imperfect returns, understated also. We have no doubt but that the aggregate losses of property on the western lakes during the past season, may be safely put down at $8,000,000. One very striking feature of the past season is the large number of steam vessels lost, principally propellers, comprising nearly thirty-three per cent of the whole aggregate value of property destroyed.—Buffalo Republic, Jan. 11.

GAME.—This is a great country for game. During the last week, there have been above two hundred deer hauled through Sparta, on their way to New York City. They were owned by one man, who purchased them for four cents a pound. They were all killed a short distance north of Black River Falls by two men. One of the men killed over a hundred. We have no doubt but that the owner of the game will make a good strike, as the New Yorkers are very fond of wild meat.

This is a great country. It produces such an abundance of wild game in the winter, and any quantity of speckled trout in the summer.—Sparta (Monroe) Watchman.

PIONEER FESTIVAL.—The committee constituted for the purpose of calling together for the first time, the Pioneers of Wisconsin, had given public notice that the time appointed for such reunion was the 7th day of February 1856. Circumstances have occurred that oblige the committee to change the time of meeting, and we now therefore renew the invitation heretofore given, to all who were in the Territory previous to the 4th of July 1835, to meet with us at Madison on Wednesday the 13th day of February, 1856.

The following gentleman have been selected as officers of the day.

James Duane Doty, President.

Ebenezer Childs, Ebenezer Brigham, Cha's Dunn, Solomon Juneau, Henry S Baird, Agustus A. Bird, Vice President's Orator of the day—Harlow S Orton.

Agustus A. Bird, Ebenezer Childs, Ebenezer Brigham, Ephraim F. Ogden, Wm R. Smith, Committee.

Madison January 14th, 1856.

Papers in the State will please publish the above, and notice the change of time of meeting. —Madison Argus.

SAD AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—On last Thursday evening, Col Doyle Marshal of Nebraska Territory, fell whilst descending the stairs of his residence, at Omaha City, causing so fatal an injury that he expired in a very few minutes.

The deceased was a young man of much energy and talent, and highly respected, and quite recently removed to the wilds of Nebraska. He leaves an affectionate wife distracted, and many friends to mourn his sudden demise — Council Bluffs Bugle, 1st inst.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

WISCONSIN ANNUAL REGISTER.

WE have just put into the hands of our compositors the copy of a work which should be in the hands of every citizen of Wisconsin, and should be largely circulated abroad.

THE WISCONSIN ANNUAL REGISTER will contain from 80 to 100 pages, printed in a neat, though cheap pamphlet form, and will contain, among other interesting items, the following:

Almanac for 1856.

Description of Wisconsin—its Boundaries, Surface, Products, Commerce, Manufactures, &c. &c.

The Counties—their boundaries, dates of organization extent, county seats, &c.

Lists of State officers from the beginning. Annals of the Leg islature, giving complete lists of members. County Officers for each County.

The Judiciary—the Judges, Districts, Election of Judges Terms of Courts, &c.

Votes for Presidents in 1848 and 1852.

Votes cast for Governor, by counties, from the first.

Commercial tables

Aggregate valuation of property by counties from the beginning, including 1855.

List of Presidents and Vice Presidents, and population of the United States in 1850.

Census of Wisconsin from 1836 to 1855, comparative table for 1850 and 1855

Congressional Elections, by counties, and much other valuable statistical information.

The matter for the work is prepared by JOHN W. HUNT, Esq., Asst Secretary of State, author of the Gazetteer of Wisconsin, &c., and may be relied upon as accurate. Liberal arrangements will be made with booksellers and agents for the sale of the work. Address

Professor Taylor.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Permit me through your columns to inform your readers that Professor V. C. TAYLOR, the popular author of various well known music books, is to visit this city and other places in Wisconsin the present winter, for the purpose of holding Musical Conventions. As yet, Mr. Taylor has confined his sphere of labors entirely to the East, where he enjoys a high reputation as a composer and musical disciplinarian. His visit West, therefore, cannot fail of producing the most important results to the divine art, wherever his influence may be felt. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Taylor and Miss Julia A. Sherman; the former a Soprano and the latter a Contralto.

While East recently, we were favored with an opportunity of hearing these artists in private, at Niagara Falls; but we will not attempt any description of their powers further than to say Mrs. Taylor possesses a Soprano voice of the first quality and high cultivation, while Miss Sherman's chest-tones possess a resonance and purity, that we have never heard equalled by any fair famed Contralto, in Concert and Opera, during a former residence in New York.

We learn that previous to holding a Convention, these artists will make their introduction to our citizens by a grand concert, which we hope will not fail of attracting our entire music loving community as listeners.

For the Sentinel.

Books for the Jail.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Permit me through your columns to make an appeal in behalf of the inmates of Milwaukee County Jail. It is not perhaps generally known, that a small Sabbath School Library is all the reading matter belonging to the Jail. Many of those confined, have a desire to read, but very soon devour the small amount of reading within their reach. Without a plentiful supply of books the day is spent in a manner calculated to lower their already deplorable condition, and confirm them in recklessness and immorality, while good moral books, the tendency of which is to stimulate to good actions and lead the mind to a correct train of thinking, might, and no doubt would, be productive of much good. I would therefore respectfully solicit contributions of books and pamphlets of a moral character in both the English and German languages, to increase the library for the benefit of the Jail.

Very respectfully yours,

GEO. H. SOURRITT, Asst. Jailer.

Milwaukee, Jan. 15, 1856.

(We commend the above to the attention of our readers; the communication is dictated in the right spirit, and reflects credit upon the assistant jailer. Any books left at our counting room will be sent to the jail, or they may be taken there, where they will be acknowledged and thankfully received.—Eds. Sentinel.

NUMBER ONE'S BALL.—The members of Milwaukee Engine Company No. One, give their Annual Party at Young's Hall to-morrow evening. Their Ball this year, is for the Military, as well as the Firemen, and both Military and Firemen, we learn will be present in large numbers and in their various uniforms. Number One is the oldest Company in our Fire Department, and has always maintained an enviable character for zeal, efficiency and good conduct. Our Firemen get no pay for the hard work, frequent exposure and occasional serious risks, incident to their calling. Their reward is in the consciousness of disinterested and well directed labor for the public protection, and in the good will and substantial regard of their fellow citizens. The public, at their annual festivals, have the opportunity of showing that good will and of giving the Firemen, at once a gratifying proof that their services and sacrifices are appreciated, and the means of equipping themselves still more efficiently for their arduous duties—for to the Company's benefit are the proceeds of these festivals applied. Let our citizens bear these facts in mind and give Number One a bumper to-morrow night.

A NICE MAN FOR A CONSTABLE.—On Monday night, the Third Ward Constable and another man, entered the house of Mrs. Gerrety, corner of Van Buren and Huron streets, and commenced to abuse the inmates. The Constable demanded to search the house, stating that he had a search warrant. The woman wanted him to show it, and refused to let him go up stairs, till he did; he then raised his club and threatened her. The Constable was drunk and had to be helped home, unable to get there himself. Complaints against him arose frequent, that we are compelled to notice them. Mrs. Gerrety, backed up by strong evidence, applied for a warrant at the Police Court, but was refused, but the suggestion was made that the Common Council might attend to his case.

PAINTING ON VELVET.—Mr. WM. FAY, teacher of this beautiful art, has placed on exhibition at Mr. HEMPSTED'S Music Store, several specimens of his handiwork, which in our judgment are very handsome, and which we commend to the consideration of our lady readers. As a teacher, Mr. FAY is excellent. See his advertisement in our columns.

MARINE BANK OF MILWAUKEE.—We learn that the certificate of incorporation of this Bank was filed in the Register's office yesterday. From the list of Stockholders shown us, we think this Bank will rank among the best and heaviest in the state.

MASONIC FESTIVAL.—The Festival of Wisconsin Lodge No. 18, passed off last night in the most happy manner, reflecting great credit upon the management.

MASONIC FESTIVAL.—Wisconsin Lodge No. 15 give their eighth Annual Festival at their elegant Lodge Room in Ludington's Block, this evening. The fraternity always get up these Festivals in superior style, and the one announced for to-night bids fair to surpass all its predecessors.

S. ADLER & NEWBOURG seem to be really in earnest in what they say in their advertisement of to-day. Knowing very well that there are some who make an apparent show of selling at low figures, and a little less than the house, thereby inducing customers to visit their stores, an then charging exorbitant prices for their goods. They respectfully invite the fashionable as well as those who are not fashionable, to call upon them, and be convinced that they can and do sell goods at as low figures as any other store in the west, and many articles for less. Give them a call.

PUTNAM'S MONTHLY

A Magazine of Literature, Science & Art.

AT WHOLLY ORIGINAL AMERICAN WORK.

WITH the January number, commences the seventh volume of PUTNAM'S MONTHLY. The constantly increasing circulation of the Magazine, and the hearty sympathy with which the efforts of the Publishers have been received by the public, stimulate them to unwearied efforts to continue to deserve the success which they have achieved. It is the aim of the Magazine to furnish the greatest variety of popular literary entertainment; to criticise politics and society, from the most manly and generous point of view; to tell the truth about books and men, so far as they are properly subjects of public notice; to present the most spirited and accurate sketches of travel and personal adventure; to discuss science in all its popular bearings; and, in general, to make itself the vehicle of the best observations upon all contemporary and national interests. This will always be done by the best talent in the country, and honestly, but it cannot always be done without offence. PUTNAM'S MONTHLY is neither a party-book, nor a partisan journal. It has no ministers and principles. It seeks to amuse and instruct; but it hopes, also, to be felt as the friend of good morals, sound learning, and the most liberal and catholic discussion.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

PUTNAM'S MONTHLY.—Two numbers of this leading American Magazine have reached us at the same time, and brought upon us an embarrassment of riches. The articles number nine eighteen in each, and there is not one that we should be inclined to pass over. Indeed, "Putnam" has a peculiar attraction for us, and we see in it a reflection of the mind, manners, and intelligence of our transatlantic cousins. It carries us into a new country; and makes us acquainted with all its characteristics in an easy, unaffected manner. Politics are not neglected; but we do not detect faction, or even party, and we rend under a persuasion that we are gathering the impartial opinion of the best minds in the United States.—London (Eng.) Weekly Times.

TERMS:—$3 a year, or 25c a number. Subscribers remitting $3 promptly, in advance, to the Publishers, will receive the work for one year, post paid, in any part of the United States, within 3000 miles.

Clubs of two persons, $5 a year, or five persons $10.—Postmasters and Clergymen supplied at $2,50. Bound Volumes of Putnam's Monthly and The Schoolfellow, to one address, $3,50, or all three of the Magazines, $5,50.

The Volumes commence with the January and July numbers.

NATIONAL MAGAZINE.

WITH THE JANUARY NO. commences a new Volume of the 5th Volume of this periodical, each number containing 96 pages, making Two Volumes a year of nearly Three Hundred Pages, most beautifully illustrated, the present number containing of superior character. The work discusses all subjects openly and freely, but in a manner which can give no offence, even to the most fastidious—as is fully acknowledged by the secular and religious press of all denominations who award the NATIONAL, at the same time of being not only the cheapest, but one of the most beautifully printed magazines in the United States, and one which should be on the table of every family in the land.

Orders for the Magazine may be directed to CARLTON & PHILLIPS, 900 Mulberry street, New York; STODDARD & POE, Cincinnati; W. M. DOUGLAS, J. L. READ, Pittsburgh; and J. P. MAGEE, Boston.

Subscriptions may commence with the January or July numbers.

Terms—$2 a year in advance. Single numbers, 12½ cents, or ten copies to one address, $15.

IMPORTANT TO EVERYBODY.

FOR the last three years I have been engaged in a business, known only to myself, and comparatively a few others, whom I have instructed for the sum of $250 each, which has averaged me at the rate of from $5,000 to $5,000 per annum, and having made arrangements to go to Europe next Spring, to engage in the same business, I am desirous of giving full instructions in the Art to every person who will remit me the sum of One Dollar. I am induced from the success I have been favored with, and the many happy acknowledgments I have received from them to whom I have instructed in the Art, and who now make long from $10 to $15 per day, to give every person a chance to come into possession of this valuable means of making a small fortune. There is no Humbug about the business herein published. References of those to whom I have given as regards its character, and I can also refer to persons in Philadelphia as well as in this city, who have, within four months embarked in the business, and who will testify that they are making from $8 to $16 per day at the same. It is a business in which either ladies or gentlemen can engage, and with perfect success, as a very handsome income. Several ladies in various parts of Pennsylvania and Maryland, whom I have instructed in the Art, are now clearing from $2 to $5 per day. It is a Genteel Business, and but a few shillings are required to start it. Upon receipt of $1,00, I will immediately send to the applicant a printed circular, containing full instructions in the Art, which will be perfectly understood upon being once read.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Caution to Western Merchants.

Learning from some of the respectable merchants of Chicago, that my Schiedam Aromatic Schnapp is extensively counterfeited by a number of Liquor mixers in New York, Philadelphia, and Boston, and finding that the pirates daringly advertise their pernicious deceptions under the name which belongs to my article, I think it necessary to caution the community against these vendors of poison in disguise.

I introduced the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapp for the purpose of supplying the medical faculty, and the whole community with a pure medicinal spirit, which might be prescribed with confidence, in all cases where stimulants were required, without producing the fearful consequences which invariably result from using adulterated liquor. In order to render assurance doubly sure, I had the article analyzed by physicians of world wide celebrity, and submitted it for experimental test to thousands of distinguished medical practitioners. The responses from these sources were of the most unequivocal and satisfactory character. It is now before the public, surrounded with these guarantees, and bearing these unimpeachable endorsements, and I call upon the community to protect themselves and me in their own health and my reputation, by frowning down and reprobating the piratical speculators who are palming their foul commodities under cover of my trade mark. No article had ever been imported from Holland into this market, under the name of Schnapps, previous to the appearance of Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps, in this city.

☞ The first importation being made into this city in the year 1848, which can be seen by the Custom House Books, I deposited my label as a trade mark in the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York, in the year 851, and have the certificate in my possession of the state. The great demand which has thus been created for the genuine article, has set the whole hive of counterfeiters in motion, and the duty I owe to my customers and friends and the public, compels me to put them on their guard against imposition.

The genuine is put up in quart and pint bottles, with my name on bottle, cork and label, for sale by all the respectable druggists and grocers in the United States.

ADOLPHO WOLFE,

19, 20 and 22 Beaver street, New York.

Among the complaints for which the Schnapps has been declared a specific by the eminent physicians who have corresponded with the proprietor, are dropsy, dyspepsia resulting consequent upon long continued sickness and old age, epilepsy, asthma, gravel, colic, affections of the kidney and all chronic diseases of the genit-urinary apparatus.—For these and many other disorders, it is now prescribed with great success, by more than three thousand medical practitioners in various parts of the United States.

CHAS. PREUSSER,

TAKES PLEASURE in announcing to his friends and customers, and the Public generally, that he has removed to his new and elegant Store, built by himself expressly for his rapidly increasing business, on the corner of East Water and Mason Streets, opposite the Walker House and Post Office. Where he is receiving almost daily additions to his large stock of in front of everything usually to be found in a well assorted business of this kind.

As his stock is all new, of the latest and most fashionable styles; purchased direct from manufacturers, he can and will sell at very small advance, he flatters himself that both Prices and Goods will give general satisfaction.

The Repairing of Watches and Jewelry will be as heretofore under my personal superintendence, and I have engaged help enough to do all work with despatch. Thanking you for the kind patronage, so liberally bestowed upon me during the past season, and by the Milwaukee Public, my friends and customers may be assured that no effort of mine will be wanting, to merit a continuance of the same.

CONFECTIONERY & TOY SHOP,

AT

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL,

BY

HERSCHEDE & SCHENDT,

No. 131, Corner of East Water and Huron Streets.

WE have now completely furnished, and very much enlarged our new store, with the articles belonging to a first class confectionery has had the very best reputation, which we will try to keep for all future; and so we will recommend them to ball-givers and housekeepers, for the coming season. Our stock of toys has been selected at New York, by Mr. Schendt himself with the utmost care, and cannot be beaten by any competitors in Milwaukee, in regard to cheapness, quality and fashion.

By completing our new building we have gained a great deal of space, and intend to use the first story for the retail trade, and the second floor for the Wholesale business.

EVARTS & BUTLER,

PROPRIETORS & MANUFACTURERS,

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

THE SMOOTHNESS OF THE WORK WHICH GIVES this Mill its superiority, is produced by making the cut in the direction of the grain of the wood.

The ease with which wood is worked in that direction gives a speed of execution; and the flexibility of the shingle which the saw, so that it may be ground thin on its edge, so as to cut away but little of the wood.

The shingles now made with this mill sell in this market seventy-five cents per thousand higher than any other sawed shingles.

This mill is made entirely of iron—strong, simple and of the best workmanship, easily worked, and not liable to get out of order.

MISCELLANEOUS.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE, 1855-6

THE TRIBUNE is now in the middle of its fifteenth year; Vol. XV. of its weekly issue commenced on the 1st of September last. The American public need not now be made acquainted with its character or claims to consideration. With but a subordinate regard for prudence, policy or popularity, it has aimed to stand for Righteousness, for Truth, for Humanity, against fortified Iniquity, Fraud and Oppression. There is no a slave-trader on this Continent, though he may never read anything but his bills of sale and notes payable, who does not know and hate THE TRIBUNE; there is not an extensive fabricator of drugged and poisonous Liquors who does not consider it a very dangerous and immoral paper, and wonder why the publication is tolerated in a commercial, cotton-buying City like New York. The NEWARK MERCURY once forcibly remarked that it had never known a hatter, gripping, screwing, avaricious employer who was not hostile to THE TRIBUNE, nor one eminently generous and kindly who did not like it. Prompt and plain-spoken in its denunciations of iniquity and abuses of power, while claiming no exemption from human fallibility, it may have done temporary injustice to individuals, but it has never been unfaithful to Principle, nor deaf to the cries of the wronged and suffering. In its columns the sad rockets of moral and unpopular theories contemplating the melioration of human woes, especially those of the voiceless and down-trodden, have ever found patience and hospitality; while it has ardently battled, and will persistingly combat, every attempt to proscribe and degrade any class because of diversities of Nativity, Creed, or Color.

In defiance of calumnies the most atrocious, and of hostilities the most deadly and untiring, THE TRIBUNE has grown steadily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its name of wrong the public have been augmented in proportion. Instead of a single editor with one or two assistants, its organization now comprises a numerous body of writers, each fitted by special accomplishment and experience for the particular line of discussion to which his pen is devoted; the daily amount of reading matter given more than quadruples that of its earliest issues; its staff of valued correspondents encircles the globe, transmitting early and intelligent narrations of whatever is most worthy of attention; while Politics, Legislation, Literature, Art, History—in short whatever affects the social well-being of mankind, Polemic Theology alone excepted—finds in the Tribune the freest and most searching discussion.

Attached by profound conviction to the beneficent policy of Industrial development and Internal Improvement—a policy whose most conspicuous champion through the last Half-Century was HENRY CLAY—imbued, moreover, with that spirit of forbearance toward our weaker neighbors and toward the much wronged Aborigines of this Continent, and of peace with all which will hallow the name of Whig, THE TRIBUNE, while surrendering no jot of its proper Independence, supported earnestly and ardently with the Whig party, so long as its vitality was preserved. When in 1850—2 an attempt was made to interpolate slave-hunting into its creed, we sternly resisted that imposition; when, at the close of the last Presidential canvass, it was seen that a large portion of the Whigs preferred to defeat their own party rather than allow its Anti-Slavery wing to share its triumphs, even under a conservative Chief on a Pro-Slavery platform, we knew and proclaimed that the Whig party was no more. Subsequent events, including the rise and culmination of the Know Nothing conspiracy, and the speedy abnegation therein of the whole force of Pro-Slavery Whigism, only confirmed the our unbounding anticipations. With no sickly lamentations, therefore, for the inevitably lagoons, but with hope and joy, and sympathy, and words of cheer, have we hailed the beginning and watched the progress of that mighty REPUBLICAN movement which, impelled by the relentless will of a Slaveocrat Congress, and stimulated by the astounding outrages whereof the rights of the Free Settlers of Kansas have been the victims—by the repeated and long-continued aggressions of an Executive and Senate wielded by conspiracy and hurled suddenly upon them from the border counties of the neighboring Slave State, is destined to sweep away the last vestige of Slaveparty feuds, and unite the true hearts and strong arms of the free-souled in one mighty effort to confine the scourge and scandal of our country within the limits of the States which unwisely uphold it. To the success of this effort, the enemies of THE TRIBUNE will be sternly devoted; while the TEMPERANCE REFORM, including the entire suppression of the Traffic in Intoxicating Beverages, will find in it, as hitherto, an earnest and unflinching champion.

Commencing as a daily folio sheet of moderate size, and with scarcely a shadow of support, THE TRIBUNE is now issued in quarto form DAILY (three distinct editions), SEMI-WEEKLY and WEEKLY, on a sheet 44 by 64 inches, each a single pages of the Roman each. Its circulation has steadily grown from nothing to the following aggregates:

Daily issues (evening and morning)	29,500 copies.
Semi-Weekly	14,175 "
Weekly	137,750 "
California edition	6,000 "
Total	187,425 copies.

We believe no other newspaper in the world has a subscription list over half so large as this; and no periodical of any sort can rival it. And while its extreme cheapness certificates an increase of paying readers only an indirect pecuniary advantage to us, has doubtless largely swelled its subscription list, it would be absurdity not to perceive in this unprecedented patronage some evidence of public approval and esteem.

TERMS.

THE TRIBUNE employs no travelling agents and sends out no papers on trust. If is not stopped when the term paid for expires, and the subscriber does not choose further to pay for it, we resort to no legal process to compel him. In the country, we mail to such every paper at the expiration of the advance payment, awaiting a fresh remittance from the subscriber. If none comes, the account is closed.

We pay no local agents; such as merely pull in any when they choose to send them to mail or otherwise send it to us; once mailed, its safety is at our risk, and a serious risk it often proves; but are grateful to every one who sends us a good name, and pushes forward the fame and money of his friends and neighbors. Our terms invariably are—for the
